To Whom It May Concern:

Over the last few years I have had the privilege of getting to know Derrick Peters. Because of his many great personal and professional attributes I am extending my personal recommendation, in the highest regard.

Derrick's time with the company, though relatively short in time, has been extremely productive (which can be seen as he has climbed the ranks swiftly). He has helped Beam Global Spirits & Wine through many facets; promotions/event/program coordination, sales, and multiple aspects of marketing. His versatile experience will bring added value to the classroom, let alone any future undertakings.

Derrick was one of the few In Market Coordinators that I saw rise to great heights. It is with pleasure that I was able to see someone with such tenacity, ambition and eagerness to learn, excel. He has always contributed no matter the circumstance. Whether it was a business casual dinner with Beam Global's marketing team and director; or on conference calls, Derrick always provided useful feedback.

Derrick always maintains a passion for perfection; which is backed by a strong work ethic and dedication. He is an asset to any organization and it would be an error to overlook his many talents.

Please give Derrick your highest consideration as he deserves my highest recommendation.

Sincerely,

Julia Dobbin
